```
OSL PRACTICAL 3
Student Records Management Using Linux Commands

cd ~/OSL_Practicals

1. Create directories
mkdir -p Student_Records cd Student_Records
mkdir -p FY SY TE BE Backup

2. Create student record files
echo -e "Name: Rahul\nRoll No: 101\nName: Priya\nRoll No: 102" > FY/FY_Students.txt

echo -e "Name: Amit\nRoll No: 201\nName: Sneha\nRoll No: 202" > SY/SY_Students.txt

echo -e "Name: Karan\nRoll No: 301\nName: Neha\nRoll No: 302" > TE/TE_Students.txt

echo -e "Name: Akash\nRoll No: 401\nName: Riya\nRoll No: 402" > BE/BE_Students.txt

Display student records
cat FY/FY_Students.txt cat SY/SY_Students.txt cat TE/TE_Students.txt cat BE/BE_Students.txt

3. Copy selected files
cp FY/FY_Students.txt Backup/cp SY/SY_Students.txt Backup/

4. Rename and delete files
mv Backup/FY_Students.txt Backup/FY_Students_Copy.txt touch TE/Temporary.txt rm TE/Temporary.txt

5. Display complete directory structure
ls -R

Optional tree view
tree
```